

6516206481.txt

My satellite radio has brought me back to listening with its distinctive music choices and information channels. Without satellite radio, I wouldn't listen to radio at all and it disturbs me to think that the FCC now wishes to regulate my choices in this format just as they have destroyed terrestrial radio. Reject NAB's petition 04-160 and maintain my freedom of choice.